Busy week at the Pickup stadia tonight as t Hasi 3 and 4 played their outstanding fixtures (the final game of the season for Hasi 4) with another full Program on Thursday for Hasi 1, 2 and 3 bringing the season to an end. Unfortunately, after such a long Season Captain Derek was unable to attend but was ably deputised for by Danny. The story unfolded as below

Hasi 4 (20) - Tame valley 6 (2) ( Written by super skip Simon F )

Great night tonight.

Full squad out to make a grand stand finish to a relatively successful season. I'm not going into detail on individual performances just to say Jason,Bruce,Chris,Steve and Ray all won (20-2) Thoroughly enjoyed leading this group this season and already looking forward to captaining next winter (that means the 4th teams here to stay) Everybody has contributed with a special mention to Martin, Les and Kieran who without their contributions life would of been a lot harder.

Anyhow that's too much sentimentality out of me (might even shed a tear ☺)

Well done lads

Over and out

There is something about Hassy 3 - we try so hard yet somehow that isn't enough.

First up was Alan at 3 playing some 7-foot-tall youth. Alan started by rolling around the floor after a couple of points but got better as the match went on with a 16-14 loss in the third, very unlucky not to get at least 1 game. Alan loses 0-3.

Next up was Dave O' playing at 2. True to form, Dave tried to alter the size of the court just by banging the ball off it, but his opponent soon wised up to this tactic. Dave put in some nice drops and definitely troubled his opponent going to 14 twice, but ended up the wrong side of a 1-3 score.

Next up was Danny playing at 5 fresh from a 3-2 team game last week and a tough box league match the previous night. Chris Fell was all over Dan in the first 2 games but pushing the ball to the back corners started to pay off and Dan just scraped the 3rd and 4th, but the puff ran out and Dan ended up losing 3-2.

Next up was Mr Baynes playing at 4. I didn't see a lot of this due to getting cleaned up, but what I did see showed that this result should have been a lot closer than it was. Quite a physical game and Simon did well to come away the wrong side of a 1-3 scoreline.

Finally, was Nutts playing at 1 to bring home some glory. Except we hadn't counted on his opponent Martin turning up. Chris played very well and only started properly tinning the ball in the 3rd game, but Martin was pulling winners out of thin air. Ridiculous. Chris did well to come away with a game. Chris finishes 1-3 down.

Final score Hassy 3 - 5, Clayton Green - 20
