19th April

And so after the festivities of Saturday night the final 2 games were played last night, We bid a fond farewell to Mick H who after 166 games for Hasi played at nu 1 where it all started for him and Hasi 1 in our first ever game way back on 24th September 2009 (With a ranking 2374, having reached a high of 2539 in December 2016 before losing few points this year, finishing back at 2359. Thanks for a great season, time to get refreshed and get stuck into the Summer league to stay sharp ready for next year.

Fairways (17) vs Hasi (9) away team report last game of the season no Gordon no Holland so chance for players to move up and get stuck in 1st up Simon Latham against a young buck nothing in it at 1 all but this youngster wouldn't go away 3 1 loss next up Tan and John on the other court tan 2-0 down and fought back 2-2 game on but just couldn't close it out plenty of positives pal 3-2 loss John playing a tricky 2 forehanded player and struggling with his knees losing 3-0 unlucky pal match lost me and Tim on at same time Tim on the right side of a 3-2 Belting match and performance of the night well played pal and me with a win at 1 tough shoes to fill but I'll sleep well tonight. Massive thanks to all involved in first team massive effort see you all next year top 3 finish looming aaagggrrraahhh Sent from my iPhone

Wigan (4) 16 hasl (2) 8

First on Andy Wray at 4 cool calm with the exception of the first game 3-1 Second up Simon W same as Andy lost the first and won the next 3 games another win number two 3-1 Men of the match Andy and Simon joint winners.
Ray and me on together both loosing at least ray got a game I just got a lesson.
Final game to Mick Wright. Against Stuart heaton all rests on this. The guys slow and old a great combination for us should be in the bag. Well not so quick Stuart won 3-1 Wigan beat us. Mick frustrated and put blame on the marker (Mick Hodgson) oh heck perhaps as well I'm leaving don't tell St. Peter's I can't mark a game.
Overall the season a blooming good show and well done to each one who played in the team. Div. 3 here we go!!!!
