---

And so the Winter (surely Summer - Ed) season of 2018 comes to an end, in glorious fashion with both teams winning well and Hasi 2 managing to avenge their defeat in the first meeting with St Peters.

Thank you to everyone involved, It's been a Summer of firsts this year, first time we have had so much sunshine, first debutants in John Keating and Dave Christie as well as the First Juniors playing in Fin McVicker, Cameron Howarth and Aiden Price. If your free next Thursday, then please go along to Rochdale to watch our chargers in the end of season Comp.

Thoughts now turn to the task ahead in Winter, 4 teams, 3 divisions - hope your already looking forward to it. A big Thanks to Captains Derek (stepping in half way through ) and John for leading the teams this summer as it has not all been plain sailing - well done chaps. Final report is below.

Winter starts Sept 20th

Rochdale 2 11 Hasi 1 16

Message from John Corteen (clearly a little upset at current form )

I'm in bed! Tim was brilliant, Simon was good, Ben was lucky, Dave was beaten by the court, and John was shite.

Subject: Haslingden 2 beat St. Peter's Burnley by 20 points to 2

In a first for Haslingden Squash Club we fielded a complete team of Simon's. ( Ok, I had to change my name for the night as Si Latham was otherwise engaged , but it seemed to work, I may keep it).

All the Simon's ran out convincing winners against our Dingle friends from St. Peters, which was a nice way to end the summer, especially as they beat us in the reverse fixture earlier in the season.

Next week it's the Finals Night at Rochdale .
Haslingden will have 2 players taking part, Tom McVicker and Simon Watkinson so feel free to come along to Rochdale and cheer them on.
Food is provided and it's FREE.

Thanks to everyone who played this summer, hope you enjoyed it.

Winter season is just found the corner ( starts 20 September).
