And so, the Summer of 2018 comes to a fitting end at Rochdale, where once again the Hasi Spirit is epitomised inspiring a fantastic performance from our chargers.

Tom Mcviker - outstanding this Summer, risen to the challenge, showing us how it's done.

Reliable as Tim the speaking clock, always there always prepared, Tom had an outstanding Summer stepping up as Hasi nu 1 in the top Division ( Credit must also to Captain Corteen who threatened with the sack early in the season took the team to the Dizzy Height of Third ), sadly for tonight Toms holiday came a little near to the comp and despite the swimming the free pie chips and ale took its toll.

Meanwhile on the other court

Si Watkinson burst onto the seen with an utterly outstanding performance, (to those that have watched Simon move steadily through the ranks in the Hasi box ladder it came as no surprise.)

S W reached the Final for Hasi 2 admirably supported by Derek me, Tim, Tom and Gordon, he came a close second.( no shame there mate its highest result of a Hasi player to date in the end of season Final, Welcome on board it was a true pleasure to watch you earn the right of Player of the Summer Season.

Summer is over, practise is done, the season starts in 2 weeks and we will be tested to the full, so we sincerely hope you are up for It.

With a new committee for the North West Counties Squash League, 2018 is the year of change and a lot of work is going on in the background to keep the environment and culture at Hasi to be one of participation and enjoyment.

Season Starts 20th September not much time but we will be ready -

Let's go have fun
