Seems to be a bit of a regular feature, but here I am cobbling this thing together again. Tom will make countless references to young deer, H2 won't make any references H3 will be nearly there, and H4 will be plucky and full of potential

It's quite important that periodically you are reminded that Sport (if you call it that), and the excellent spirit Haslingden represents. On the other court last night we saw the other side of Squash, bickering, threatening behaviour and out and out cheating. I know which side of the fence I prefer

Over to the Deer sanctuary ....
Deer with no eyes- no idea
Deer with no legs and no eyes – still no idea, and right now it is rutting season ...

H1 v COM (18-4)

At home looking for our first win

Si Latham
Playing a young (fill in blank here) out of position, in my view some great squash at times
Losing 3-1 , unlucky

Foxy Corteen
Playing a guy, no wait a girl, no pressure on, time to be a perfect Gent. John running out a gallant 3-0

Gordo
Up against a tricky chap 1-1 game on

Gordo playing fab squash and performance of the night winning 3-1

Tando
Solid performance winning 3-0 , keep it going pal (Ed note obviously found his antlers)

Tom and finally getting my first win, happy days

Dingles next week away ,passports at the ready DOH .....

TFW v H2 (20-1)

The Clint Eastwood approach to reporting, a team of few of few words
Tough gig tonight looking the card
Ben
Simon W
Shell
Andy Wray , lost 3-0
Mick got a game

Tough for these guys finding their feet , obviously needing a deer type theme to come again

H3 V CW 2

Alan O V Terry O = 1-3

This is the story of the night for us. Al started well and took it Terry, then failed to push on and capitalise

Walshy V Ian L=1-3

More of the same bagged the first, then couldn't finish him off

Steve Michie V Joe 3-1

Result 3 points someone who struggled to hit a cow's arse with a banjo on Monday, what a difference 3 days makes

Fizzy Foz v Carl C 1-3

Cap turned up full of worst man flu since the creation of man flu, but had best game I've played this century (Ed's note this lad has obviously been medicating)

Could have been 3-0 to me, (but when the tablets wore of... )

Simon B v Gavin 1-3

What a pair of whinge bags, Cap got lucky and marked this one

Not a great game this with a lot of niggles

Si could have had this if he'd got angry with me earlier

TV6 V H4 ( 17-7 ), or in normal speak, so close, oh so close

Fin up first @ 4= 0-3

Lost first 16-14, second 15-13 and finally last 17-15, that close. Les Hughes is going down the newsagent to get the lottery on tonight, he was completely spent after a very close game that hung on a few points .Watching him bare chested on the balcony after sweating like a sweaty thing

Young Fin brought the place to a stop, all the other teams came for a look at this wonderkid, balcony was packed. Phil Ashton a fellow ref known for few words was purring like the James Bond kitty. Soon kid, really soon .....

Les @ 5= 0-3

Les played Mike Grey , and was subjected to some brutal hitting , so I guess you could say he faded to Grey. (anyone getting that reference is as old as me), Unlucky son, but you need a guy, you ring Les, no fuss no drama, and he duly trots out

Martin G @ 3= 3-1

Martin was playing Walter, nice as pie Walter on balcony practically offering Werther's originals, then becoming weird Walter on court, nasty pasty time

Walter wanted to play mind games with our man, Martin wasn't having any of it , and was not getting pushed into a corner

Fin & I loved it and were roaring laughing and commenting on the weirdness, top gun

Paddy , put the pensioner straight and sorted out his back as an extra bonus

Steve R @ 2 = 0-3

The thought of actually pulling this off crossed my mind. Steve ran into Kiran, who with his reverse baseball cap, and being wrapped in neoprene, must have put our man off

Very strange style of squash , that bamboozled and got them the result

Bruce v Lee@ 1= 3-2

Hi- yaaa, it was a bit Bruce Lee, first two games, I was basically handed my arse

Then it happened a 'Ginger epiphany', it was like an out of body experience, a Ginger Yoda moment .... He was there on court with me, win a game you must .... Change your game you must, and so I did. Les was helping enormously coming down with a pint sniggering saying oh well, and shall I order you one now
I drew on my love for Captain tenacious Dez, and squeaked it 17-15 in the last. Weird Walter was marking, which added to it the enjoyment

Re group, go again , and remember we are something awesome, next week awaits
