So it turns out Ginger is frightened of GDPR, and that's why I have this gig again !

In a night of mixed fortunes, we throw out another magnificent set of teams scattered across the Northwest (Fly my pretties fly, as the wicked witch of Newchurch Rd was heard to cackle)

Si Baynes told me there was no stop and search in Moss side, and if there was they wouldn't find much in our lads pockets this week anyways (H2, Not to be confused with that new railway track, finding their feet in NE 3)

Tough gigs all round except for the Wizard of Rawtenstall, (Dezza) who has cast his spell in Div 5. I have offered my ruby slippers, but he said something about not being a good friend of Dorothy.. !!!

Need that team spirit again next week, hopefully a few will start to come off the sick list Quick note, if you are at home we need to get it going, a couple of 3-2's and it's a midnight Job. I will ask away teams to get a shift on and be there for 7 if possible. We need to try and be out by 10

Without further ado

Hassy 1 v tame valley 2 at home report lost 4-1 should have been 3-2 but hey ho

First up unstoppable Tony Hussain with another great home win 3-1 superb performance pal keep it going.

Me next losing 3-1 against a player that battered me last time so plenty of positives.

Next up foxy with a tough opponent who seemed to get clear winners back and grind John down loss 3-0.

Next up si watkinson to keep us in the running 2-2 game on losing to a shocking decision on game point (serve clearly down) but still performance of the night for me well played pal loss 3-2.

Last up gordy with a great start but mr Burke class grinding gordy down some great squash against some very tasty players well played crow wood.

Away next time Gordon Tan Simon Watkinson possibly not available so I'll name team Sat late on.

Cheers lads

Moss Side 20 - H2 3

we go if I start by saying most of us spent longer in the car than we did on court you will sort of get the picture !!

Danny v fitz 0-3

Welcome to div 3 our very own caveman Allen. Not even time to put a few drawings on the wall for future generations to see. Fitz, armed with a new hip, put our man to sword quick sticks. 3-11, 4-11, 2-11

Simon v Ricky 2-3

Game of the night for our Mr Baynes. Straight out of the trap (weight loss treatment) caught Ricky early 11-4, shocked and awed we have a point on the board ! Surprised by the amount of running simon almost took the second game two but eventually went down 10-12. So One a piece. Some great shots and some questionable marking by Benno- I'm sure you serve from both sides not left left and left but who knows he's our Number 1, Just missed out 7-11. Well played matey

Andy v George 1-3

Didn't see a right lot of this one as we got stuck on the motorway. So we arrived with Andy 2-0 down. Team support must have worked as Andy took game three 11-8 with us all watching - get in ! A little bit too much tin (yes I did say that) Andy almost had the fourth but eventually went down 9-11

Chris v Danny 0-3

I've never seen a ginger afro before - but I have now. A bit bemused by the air conditioned courts lost the first 2-11 (ouch) so into the second. Lots of running, this lad retrieved everything I tried, thought I might get one but eventually lost 7-11, 7-11 gutted I just wanted one ! I think if we had played longer I would have won as he had to go 9.00pm to do his homework!!!

Ben v Rick 0-3

What can you say. This guy shouldn't be anywhere near this division 1-11,1-11,1-11 unlucky Ben sometimes there is literally nothing you can do. I think if we were still playing today he still wouldn't have lost a game - Great to watch but not great to receive. Even Ben was smiling in the face of defeat as everything he threw at him just came back - see you next week bud

So there you have it. Nice lads, great food at M&M Caribbean cafe in moss side (!) red stripe in tins (love it) and off we go to next week

Team 3 report Bury 3/2/1 20 v H3 3 -5

Firstly bury 3 looked suspiciously like bury 2 ☺

Bruce v Mike

Great game this, went one way then the other. Bruce put his all in but just fell short.
2-3

Steve v George

Not much to say about this and I think Steve would agree not his best night.

0-3

Alan v Fabian

Close call as to game of the night between Bruce and Alan, but Alan pips it. A fantastic performance against a player who retrieves everything.

GREAT GAME

2-3

Chris v Dan

Mr angry was chilled tonight. Chris played some good squash but his opponent was equal to it and took advantage of Chris's power with some good lengths.

0-3

Boss v Fred

Bit of a let down this. Last time had a good crack at him, tonight not so good. Playing with a tight hammy not doing me any favours. Did well to get one.

1-3

A side note to people there was only 2 of Hassy went to the pub tonight. Al apart we need to be together on court and after.

Thank you and good night

Haslingden 4 v Total Fitness Whitefield 3

Won 21 points to 5 (5-0)

Another terrific performance from the squad.

Dave Christie , making his winter team debut , against a junior (13 year old). A straightforward 3-0 win with just a slight wobble in the 2nd game when he had to come from behind to win 18-16. Dave was just being nice, clearly not yet in the killer mode that Hasi 4 regulars adopt. Nevertheless a good debut getting the team off to a great start.

Next on Fin. (A special thanks to Mrs M for delivering him). He lost the first game against 'Gingezilla' (their name for him, not ours), 6' 5" Matt who had arms long enough to touch both sidewalls. Fin stormed off court a bit disgruntled by a couple of marking decisions. Without Raymondo to guide him between games the task fell to me. I gave him a stern talking to and told him to stop behaving like a kid and get back on there and show what he can really do. I had to go on to play my game so didn't see the rest of his match but credit to him he sorted things out and won 3-1 even though the 4th was 18-20. Another good result, now we are 2 up and surely can't fail from here?

(Note: it makes a huge difference when the team gets off to a good start, thanks Dave and Fin)

Well I did my best to blow it. Lost the first , won the second, lost the third. C'mon you idiot, what's the point of being captain if you can't bring home the bacon? Sorted in the end , but it was harder work than it should have been. Hey, a wins a win.

Steve R made even harder work of it, having to come from 0-2 down to win in the end. I think the magic happened when I told him the match was already won and so he could enjoy it. He was definitely more aggressive in the last 3 games, but maybe that was just the guest marker giving decisions he disagreed with getting him wound up. Nevertheless another fine win.

Last up Kieran filling in at the last minute , won the first, inexplicably lost the 2nd, crushed his opponent in the 3rd and ground out a win in the 4th coming from 8-13 down to win. Excellent stuff.

So, another maximum points win which should move us up the table another notch or two. We have a good spirit and are able to call on a number of newer players keen to get in on the act.

So far, whenever we have needed people to step up they have done exactly that and won in the process too.

President Holland of Newchurch (Surely Cloughfold ? - ed) will be very proud.
